Re: ABHES Achieves Continued Recognition and Expansion of Scope

By letter dated July 8, 2011, the Assistant Secretary, United States Department of Education, Eduardo M. Ochoa, concurred with the recommendation of the National Committee on Institutional Quality and Integrity (NACIQI). Thus, the recognition of the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools (ABHES) is continued and its request for expansion of scope to accredit at the baccalaureate degree level is approved and included within its recognition by the United States Secretary of Education.

ABHES appreciates all of the support from its members and other interested parties as it worked toward this latest achievement.
