Dear Mr. Mukahanana:

The Commission of the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools (ABHES) has received the report of the Appeal Panel following the institution's May 31, 2012, appeal of the Commission's December 19, 2011 action withdrawing the institution's grant of accreditation. A copy of this report is attached.

The Appeal Panel voted unanimously to affirm the decision of the Commission withdrawing the institution's accreditation. The Appeal Panel found that the record before the Commission at the time of its decision supported the Commission's conclusion that the institution had failed to demonstrate compliance with the requirements for accreditation and that the institution had received very detailed descriptions of violations of ABHES' standards and had an adequate opportunity to respond.

Accordingly, at its July 14, 2012 meeting, the Commission acted pursuant to Chapter III.E.2.i of the Accreditation Manual to implement the decision of the Appeal Panel. The decision to withdraw accreditation is affirmed and is effective 10 calendar days from the date of this letter on August 6, 2012. Accreditation ends on that date, and there is no additional appeal available.

As is set forth in Chapter I.B.1 of the Accreditation Manual, federal and state regulators are copied on and provided this correspondence simultaneously to you. Chapter I.B.1 of the Accreditation Manual also provides that within 60 days of this final negative action, the Commission makes available upon request to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education, appropriate state agencies, recognized accrediting agencies, and the public a brief statement summarizing the reasons for this negative action and the official comments, if any, that your institution wishes to make with regard to this decision. Consequently, if you wish to make a brief official written comment on this negative action you must do so within 10 calendar days of the date of this letter. You are not required to make such statement, and failure to do so within the time allotted will be understood as a decision not to comment.

Pursuant to Chapter III.C.5 of the Accreditation Manual, the institution may not reapply to ABHES for accreditation for a period of one year following the date of this letter setting forth the final decision of the Commission.

Sincerely,

Carol A. Moneymaker

Carol A. Moneymaker
Executive Director
